Prom 2026 Dress Code Guidelines

This year's prom is shaping up to be an event to remember for our students. One of the most difficult things for us to address is modesty. Our Core Values state that "We will be countercultural where culture encourages indulgence and will hold higher standards of civility and decency than are typical in the culture at large." As styles change, our expectations around modesty remain intact. As you are out shopping for attire for this special event, please note the following guidelines for both our young men and young women. If you are unsure about your chosen attire, please check with us. We are happy to help

Prom is a semi-formal event, and our young men and women are expected to follow these guidelines:

Gentlemen (jacket and tie)

1. Tuxedo
2. Suit and tie
3. Sport coat with slacks and tie
4. Tennis shoes and/or jeans are not allowed.

Ladies

1. Neckline must be cut in a modest way and show no cleavage.
2. The cut of the back and sides of the dress must not be cut below the naval (elbow). No open-back dresses.
3. The length of dress must be no shorter than mid-thigh.
4. Slits in a dress/skirt may be no higher than 3 inches above the knee.
5. Two-piece dresses must have no more than two inches between the skirt and top.
6. Illusion may not be used to bring a dress into compliance.
7. Dresses must not be excessively tight or body con.
8. A coat/shawl/sweater may not be used over a dress that does not meet requirements.

 If you are unsure about your chosen attire, please check with administration. We are happy to help.

Anyone who does not follow these guidelines will be turned away at the door without a refund.
