

CALLING ALL PHS RISING SENIORS

COLLEGE ESSAY & APPLICATION SUMMER BOOT CAMP

Paramus High School is offering an intensive workshop experience to support all students preparing for the college application process.

Participants will receive support from an English Teacher and a School Counselor over the course of three, half-day meetings at the High School.

A variety of topics will be addressed including, but not limited to, college essay writing support and assistance with the Common Application. Participants will also hear from a variety of College Representatives about what contributes to a strong college essay and application.

Outcomes of the workshop are a finished college essay and the initiation of the Common Application.

Participation is limited to keep group sizes small for individualized support. So, register as soon as possible to secure your place.
